

The most enjoyable and most impactful discipleship experience grows out of consistency and relationships between the discipleship leader, students in the group, and the students' parents.

Student: I will do my part to make my discipleship group the best it can be by...

- Building relationships with my leader and other group members.
- Being respectful to my leader and other group members.
- Praying for my fellow group members.
- Completing any weekly challenges/assignments.

Parent: I agree to do my part by...

- Making my Jhi student's discipleship meeting a priority.
- Ensuring that my student is present at every discipleship group meeting (with reasonable exceptions).
- Building relationship with my student's leader.
- Praying regularly for my student's leader.
- Supporting my student's leader whenever possible. (This may include subbing, providing snacks, helping drive students to group gatherings planned outside of regular group meeting, etc.)

Discipleship Leader: I agree to do my part to make my discipleship group the best it can be by...

- Building relationships with group members and their parents.
- Being present at every discipleship group meeting (with reasonable exceptions).
- Coming to the group prepared to lead, love, and serve the students..
- Praying for my group members and their parents.
- Attending leadership equipping/fellowship meetings.
